

C/2024/7035

2.12.2024

Action brought on 10 September 2024 – FB v Parliament

(Case T-468/24)

(C/2024/7035)

Language of the case: French

Parties

Applicant: FB (represented by: M. Casado García Hirschfeld, lawyer)

Defendant: European Parliament

Form of order sought

The applicant claims that the Court should:

- declare the present application admissible;
- annul the contested decision of 13 November 2023 and, where necessary, annul the decision rejecting the applicant's complaint of 30 January 2024;
- order the defendant to pay the costs.

Pleas in law and main arguments

In support of the action, the applicant relies on a single plea in law.

The applicant raises a single plea in law to challenge principally the legality of that decision. That plea is divided into two parts:

1. The first part, alleging infringement of Article 17 of Annex VIII to the Staff Regulations and failure to observe the principle of equal treatment and non-discrimination;
2. The second part, alleging failure to observe the principle of proportionality.
